A.I. & Web developer

Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh, India

Summary

I'm a B.Tech (AI/ML) student at S.H.E.A.T., passionate about Data Science, Generative AI, and Web Development.

I hold a certificate in Data Science with Generative AI and have a solid foundation in Python programming, which I've been mastering over the past year. Alongside my academic journey, I actively teach Python and basic computer skills, helping others grow while reinforcing my own knowledge.

I'm also a Front-End Web Developer, currently expanding my skills in Full-Stack Development with a goal to build innovative, real-world tech solutions.

Currently Exploring:

Machine Learning & AI applications

Front-End Tools (React, Tailwind CSS)

Backend Development (Node.js, MongoDB)

Real-world Data Science Projects

Let's connect if you're into tech, education, or building the future together!
